

AQ Transformer Solutions is committed to fully adhere to the requirements of OHSAS 18001 and ISO and on other selected target markets. The corresponding applicable Health & Safety regulations and laws to the applicable railway safety regulations, laws, and guidelines.

We commit to continuously improve the working environment, eliminate accidents, and reduce risks to the benefit of our employees, customer and public. We review the corresponding processes and systems periodically.

We commit to develop, manufacture and ship products in a manner that there is a minimal risk of injury to workers, users, passengers and public.

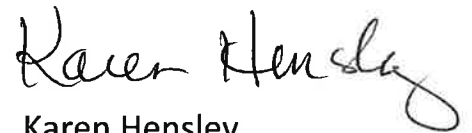

AQ Transformer Solutions minimizes the potential business risk, the impact on Health & Safety and continuously improves safety performance level by:

- Identifying and evaluation of the potential risk on people and on business processes
- Defining contingency and emergency plans
- Putting in place controls and resources for to prevent accidents and reduce the risk and their impact.
- Providing regular trainings to all employees, including temporary workers to work with in compliance with the relevant safety procedures and standards
- Auditing all processes which oversee implementation the compliance with the Risk & Safety Policy

Dan Day

Managing Director

Karen Hensley

HS&E Representative

Created:	Samantha Sharp	ISO 9001: (current revision)	NA
Document owner:	Karen Hensley	ISO14001: (current revision)	NA
Creation date:	06.22.2021	Approved by:	Dan Day Managing Director
Revision (date):	09.26.2023	Approved by:	Karen Hensley HS&E Coordinator